

Authorized Service Agency and Parts Distributor Guide

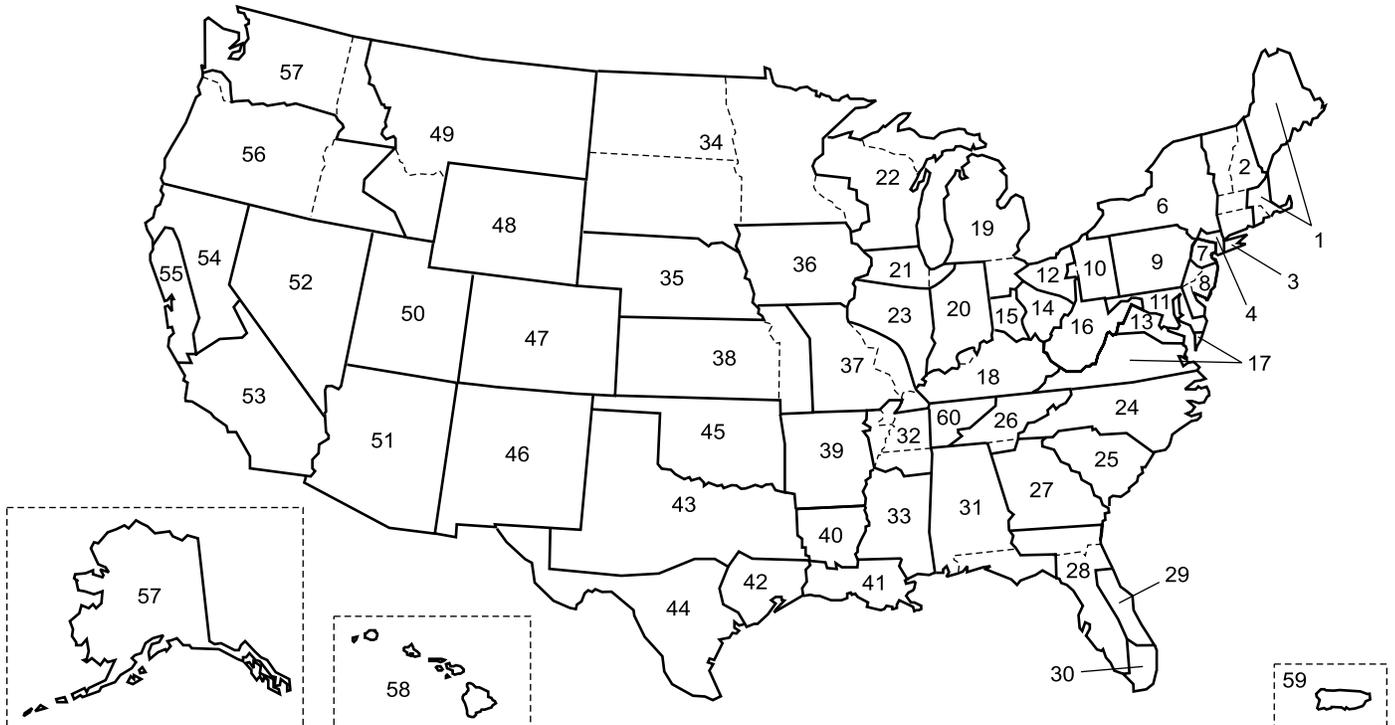

Middleby Cooking Systems Group goes to great lengths to ensure service excellence. One of the ways in which we accomplish this is through our extensive Authorized Service Agency and Parts Distributor Network. All of our agents are fully trained and authorized by the factory on the product lines that they represent.

To use this guide, find the agency (or agencies) that are listed for your geographic area. If a service agency is not in your immediate area, many agents employ local sub-agents that are also authorized for in-warranty service of your product.
